Wine description

A fresh, fruit driven wine that is enjoyable in its youth. It comes from Viu Manent's El Olivar vineyard close to the town of Peralillo in the Colchagua Valley, a relatively new viticultural area that is well suited to the Syrah grape. The 2010 season was cooler than normal and as a result this vintage is slightly fresher than normal with higher natural acidity and less alcohol.

Tasting note

Aromas of violets, ripe cherries, plums and sweet spices. The palate is medium bodied with silky tannins and a lush, refreshing acidity that leads to an elegant, persistent finish.
