Chambertin Grand Cru Cuvée Héritiers Latour

Louis Latour

Vintage	2009
Country of Origin	France
Region	Côte de Nuits
Grape varieties	Pinot Noir

Wine description

At the end of the 19th century the Latour family acquired 0.81 hectares in the Chambertin Grand Cru appellation, forming a beautiful parcel extending from the top to the bottom of the hillside. The name Cuvée Héritiers Latour was given because the parcel has been passed down through generations of Latour family. The terroir of Chambertin is legendary; its exceptional richness is due to a geological phenomenon called alluvial fan. This deeply complex terroir is characterised by brown calcareous soils which breed powerful and complex wines with a long ageing potential.

Tasting note

This wine has complex aromas of liquorice and cocoa. On the palate, it evolves toward notes of mixed berries and earthiness with great aromatic persistence on the finish.
