Louis Latour

Country of Origin	France

Wine description

Chassagne-Montrachet and its neighbour Puligny-Montrachet are well-known for their Grand Crus, the most famous being the Montrachet. However, apart from these white Grand Crus, Chassagne-Montrachet also produces, on its clay and iron-rich soils, excellent red wines with heady aromas of cherry and blueberry.

Tasting note

This Chassagne-Montrachet 2012 red wine is of a garnet colour. On the nose, it reveals aromas of gingerbread, caramel and cherries. In the mouth there are notes of cherries again, accompanied by woody and smoky notes. It is an ample wine with lovely tannins and a great length.
