Wine description

Nuits Saint Georges is the most southerly village in the Côte de Nuits. The village was originally called Nuits but added Saint Georges, the name of one of its finest vineyards, in the 19th century. There are no Grand Crus in this village. The wines tend to be firm and usually benefit from a few years ageing.

This wine is of an intense garnet colour. On the nose blackcurrant and under-woody aromas emerge. The palate is fresh revealing blackcurrant and clove notes. On the finish the wine has a good length and persistence.
