Wine description

The village of Puligny-Montrachet is home to some of the world's most extraordinary Chardonnays including the famous Montrachet, Chevalier Montrachet and Bâtard-Montrachet. The village wines themselves are racy with a bouquet of almonds, fern, hawthorn and peaches. The flavours are rich but steely, a characteristic that often distinguishes them from their neighbours in Meursault and Chassagne.

Tasting note

Puligny-Montrachet 2015 reveals a yellow colour with green hues. The nose is characterised by floral and toasted almond notes. On the palate, it is opulent with aromas of fresh almond, grapefruit and apricot. The finish is long and elegant.
