Country of Origin	France

Grape varieties	Pinot Noir

Wine description

The Latour family has owned a portion of Romanée-Saint-Vivant since 1898. The original purchase consisted of four Journaux of vines, an ancient Burgundian measurement corresponding to the area a vigneron could till in a day (0,8 ha). Only a narrow and rutted lane separates this vineyard from Romanée-Conti. It is wonderfully flavourful with a velvety texture that culminates in a persistent, perfumed finish. One of the world's greatest red wines.

Tasting note

The beautiful deep red colour of the wine gives way to aromas of blackberry and liquorice. Tannins, fruit and vanilla notes are melted together into a well-structured and harmonious wine which lingers deliciously in your mouth.
