Tiger Country

McHenry Hohnen

Vintage	2009
Country of Origin	Australia
Region	Margaret River
Grape varieties	Tempranillo, Petit Verdot, Graciano

Wine description

McHenry Hohnen's Tiger Country is a blend of 45% Tempranillo, 35% Petit Verdot and 30% Graciano. This is a radically different blend than the preceding 2006 vintage which blended a larger proportion of Tempranillo with Petit Verdot and Cabernet Sauvignon. The resulting wine has great fruit purity underpinned with fine tannins and olive/herbal notes. Vineyard management embraces sustainable 'Old School' practices that mark a return to time honoured methods used before the advent of modern, large scale agriculture.
